Befriending Contact Registration Form.

Befriending is a new service for older people and other vulnerable individuals in the area. The service supports a trained and vetted staff member or volunteer (the 'Befriender') whose role is to provide informal social support to the individual. The aim of the service is to form a trusting relationship over time in order to reduce isolation. The Befriender is not a counsellor, home help or carer and will not undertake such roles. The Befriender will meet with the individual at agreed times and dates to provide conversation and companionship.

We have been given your details by:

as someone that may be contacted in an emergency or if we have concerns about their well-being. We require everybody who avails of the Befriending service to provide at least two named contacts. If you agree to be a named contact for this individual please fill in your details and sign below. All your information will be held in strict confidence.
